Hi Tad.

Don't know if you recall me, but I coached the lower grade Cronulla Sharks for 2 years about 12 years back

I just wanted to say hi and hope the baseball scene is still going strong for you

I am currently living in Japan on business, having been here for 9 months of a 2 year contract with Toyota

Believe it or not, I have been play hit and giggle over here with one of the Toyota social teams but all the guys in the team are about 20 years younger than me and I think they let me play purely for the novelty of having a westerner on the team (ha ha)

My two boys both have been playing Gridiron (USA Football) for about 5 years or so) and Chris the oldest made the Australian Seniors this year and played in Utah only a few weeks ago against a couple of college teams over there (they got whipped but it was a great experience for them)

I hope you son is doing well, even at a young age you could see he was going to play ball well

I met Ty Woods on the Nagoya Dragons Major league team here (nice guy)

Anyway just wanted to say hi and thank you for the experience of coaching with you which was truly a great learning curve in baseball for me (which after 30 years I still love)

All the very best in baseball
